

Your are invited to the 3rd Annual

Kootenay Lake Summit

When: Saturday October 24th 9:00am-3:30pm

Where: Prestige Lakeside Resort 701 Lakeside Dr., Nelson BC

The event is free but registration is required (as space is limited).

Register today by calling 250-777-2955 or online at friendsofkootenaylake.ca

The 3rd Annual Kootenay Lake Summit will bring together people who live near Kootenay Lake to inspire and educate. There will be presentations, exhibit booths, live music, a dance performance, an introduction to the Kootenay Lake Community Values Study, and free lunch. Themes will include fisheries, First Nations history, geology, and species-at-risk.

- Keynote Speaker: Joe Pierre Jr. - Storyteller from the Ktunaxa Nation
- Presenters:
 - Lesley Killough - Origins of Kootenay Lake and its unique geologic features
 - Nicole Kapell - Archaeology on Kootenay Lake and Ktunaxa Nation Cultural Values Study
 - Jeff Burrows - Update on Kootenay Lake fisheries and introduction to shoreline spawning kokanee
 - Jakob Dulisse - Species-at-Risk on Kootenay Lake
- Dance performance by Midway Theatre and Allegro Dance Theatre

