

The Gardener's Quick Guide to Invasive Plants for Central Kootenay, BC

Do Not Buy or Transplant

italian arum
(Arum italicum)

shiny geranium
(Geranium lucidum)

yellow archangel (Lamium galeodon)

foxglove
(Digitalis purpurea)

Sold Locally-Do Not Buy

common periwinkle
(Vinca minor)

English ivy (Hedera helix)

black locust
(Robinia pseudoacacia)

Russian olive (Elaeagnus angustifolia)

Beware of Invasive Plants in Wildflower Mixes

bachelor's button (Centaurea cyanus)

baby's breath
(Gypsophila paniculata)

oxeye daisy (Leucanthemum vulgare)

cheatgrass
(Bromus tectorum)

Edible and Medicinal- control

sweet fennel (Foeniculum vulgare)

common comfrey
(Symphytum officinale)

Consider Alternatives

- Plant in a container
- Deadhead to eliminate spread by seed
- Remove from property. Do not spread berries if picking in wild

Himalayan blackberry (Rubus armeniacus)

Prevent future invasive plants in our region- Avoid aggressive growers, prolific seeders and plants that are listed as invasive elsewhere

Invasive Groundcovers

myrtle spurge
(Euphorbia myrsinites)

← New to region

- found in BC nurseries
- Toxic to humans, live-stock and wildlife
- Latex sap can cause blindness

leafy spurge (Euphorbia esula)

goldmoss stonecrop
(Sedum acre)

Common-Do Not Transplant

knotweeds
(Fallopia sp.)

Scotch broom (Cytisus scoparius)

orange hawkweed
(Hieracium aurantiacum)

common tansy
(Elaeagnus angustifolia)

Report to CKISS.ca

poison hemlock
(Conium maculatum)

garlic mustard
(Alliaria petiolata)

tree of heaven
(Ailanthus altissima)

wild chervil
(Anthriscus sylvestris)

For More Information

Visit CKISS.ca for information on management and identification

For non-invasive alternatives visit ckiss.ca

